QUIZ MATCHMAKER IN PROBING PASTOR'S DEATH

$39,620 SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS ARE SOUGHT BY SALEM

Special Taxes Due in All Parts of the County
Total $215,425.

MORE THAN HALF
OWING TO CITIES

Payment Will Reduce Needs of Sinking Fund, Then Lower Tax Rate.

There was due and payable at the December tax collecting period $215, 425.50 in delinquent and now due special assessments, according to records just compiled in the office of County Auditor Charles E. Hamilton. This is the largest amount of special assessments placed on the duplicate in years.

The special assessments have to do with street, lighting and sewer improvements, and in one instance, that having to do with the Columbiana corporation, the special assessment is for street sprinkling purposes.

Township and road district special assessments have been listed on the tax duplicate as follows:

Goshen township $2,609; Perry township $1,945.68; Salem township $2,085.34; Washington township $1, 029.87; West township $11,167.74.
The total of these special assessments is $20,769.69.

City Assessments

Municipal special assessments total $149,658.17, and have been divided among the following districts: Lisbon corporation $12,077.34; Columbiana corporation $20,094.37; East Liverpool city $56,519.15; corporation $29,026.54; Leetonia $251.74; East Waterford corporation $265.62; East Palestine corporation $16,274.47; Salmville corporation $2,644.85; Wellsville city $7,639.57.

The county debt special assessment is placed at $17,119.66 and the special county road assessment totals $37,877.98.

Latency in the payment of these assessments in the past has caused authorities to levy a special millage in order to take care of bonds which were issued for certain improvements in anticipation of the collection of assessments. Had it been possible to collect the assessments semi-annually as is always proposed, the tax rate in a number of districts would be lower than it is today. The bonds are paid for from the sinking fund, and this fund must always be kept up to a point where all bonds are paid for also interest, when either become due.

Collections Increase

There has been more activity in the payment of these special assessments this year than ever before, the assessments being collected by County Treasurer Jo Pike when property tax is collected. Practically no opposition has been offered to the payment of the special assessments and the tax against the property is not received unless the special assessments against that particular property are also paid at the same time.

The total of $215,425.50 special assessment now on the duplicate also includes amounts that are delinquent for from one to five or more years.
Close collection of the special assessment will increase the amount of money in the sinking funds of the various districts, and this may result in a lowering of the sinking fund levy next year.

INSPECT NEW REST ROOM, CLUB URGES

Many Uses for Public Room Fitted Up by Members of Book Club.

The public rest room for women, located at 19 North Lundy, which has been fitted up by the Salem Book club, is nearly completed and the public is invited to call any day from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. to inspect it.
A competent rest room has been sought who will be at the room during the day to look after the comfort of the patrons by keeping the room clean, warm and cheerful.

Many uses are suggested for this room, some from a mere waiting place. It is a convenient place to meet a friend downtown, write a letter or card in mail before going home, get a lunch, take the baby to rest and feed, girls can meet a friend at a street corner or before going to the theater. It can be used as a place to linger a little while downtown.

Dudley Field Malone Home Robbed of Gems

New York, Jan. 16.—Thieves took $100 in jewelry from the apartment of Dudley Field Malone while he and his wife were at the theater Wednesday night, the police said today. The jewelry taken consisted of a gold brooch set with black opals, a platinum brooch set with sapphires, diamonds and pearls, and other articles.

ALBERT MORLAN DIES IN INDIANA

Former Salem Man, Writer of Some Note, Was the Author of a Book.

Salem relatives have received word of the death of Albert Morlan of Indianapolis, Ind., on Jan. 9. Funeral service was held at the home on Jan.
11.

Albert Morlan, son of Mordecai and Eliza Morlan, was born in 1850 at Greenville, Pa. Later the family moved to Salem, where they resided for many years. He was the youngest and last member of a large family. In early manhood he married Martha Richards of Salem, who survives. To this union five children were born, four of whom are living.
In 1894, Mr. Morlan with his family removed to Indianapolis, where they have since resided. Always a lover of poetry and the beautiful art of doors, he enjoyed reading, writing and the painting of pictures. The New England poets and the great nature writers were his companions up to the last few days of his life.
He was a writer of some note, being the author of a book entitled "A Hoosier in Honduras," descriptive of his travels through Central America.

Several years ago under the name of J. W. Hollingsworth, he wrote several letters to The News describing many interesting incidents in his early life in Salem. These letters were illustrated by drawings which he made from memory, and doubtless many of the older readers of The News will recall these letters, as they aroused much interest and comment at the time.

He was an uncle of Charles, M. L. and Willis Hale of Salem, and of Charles Morlan of Damascus.

Pupils Hear Address On Law Enforcement

Dr. P. H. Gordon, pastor of the Presbyterian church, spoke to the children of the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth grades, at the Columbus school, Friday in observance of law enforcement day.

He used as the basis of his talk,
"Playing the Game," and with this thought led up to observance of laws and temperance.

At the McKinley ave. school the observance was general in the different rooms.

PINCHOT ENLISTS FEDERAL HELP TO MAKE STATE DRY

Turbulent Scenes
Mark German Drama
Of Lusitania's Fate

Darmstadt, Germany, Jan. 16.—Turbulent scenes both for and against followed the first performance today of a naturalistic drama in three acts entitled "Lusitania" by Alfred Doeblin.

The first act depicted the passengers of the Lusitania shortly before the sinking of the vessel. The second showed the drowned at the bottom of the sea, and the final scene, the survivors arriving in port.

COURT ADVOCATES MAY TRY CLOTURE TO PUSH PROGRAM

Move Puts Irreconcilable Group on Defensive in Court Attack.

Washington, Jan. 16.—With rumors of cloture in the air, the senate's battalion of "irreconcilables" were plainly on the defensive today in their fight to prevent American adherence to the world court.

Under the decision of administration leaders to keep the court resolution before the senate to the exclusion of all other business, except the tax reduction bill, the little "irreconcilable" group was forced to extended debate against the world tribunal. Friends of the court characterized the protracted debate as an "incipient filibuster" but took no steps to stop it, preferring rather a policy of "watchful waiting."

The immediate goal of the irreconcilables was to prevent a vote on the court until after the $340,000,000 tax reduction bill has reached the senate early next week. Administration leaders already have decided to sidetrack the court until the tax bill is enacted but plan to invoke cloture if the anti-court ranks delay passage of the revenue measure as a form of filibuster against the court itself. If such a delay occurs, cloture will be invoked by the court adherents to force either an immediate vote on the tax bill or upon the court resolution itself.

TWO MEN ESCAPE IN AUTO'S PLUNGE

Salem Man and Companion in Auto as it Flung Over Embankment.

J. P. Eckert, aged about 50, of Salem, and Mr. Dunn, 19, of Beaver Falls, had a narrow escape from death about 1 p. m. Saturday on the Hartshorn hill, about one and a half miles east of East Palestine, when the Ford coupe in which they were riding was almost completely demolished in an accident. The men were on their way from Beaver Falls to Salem.

On this hill there is a bad turn, which the motorists failed to make and their car went through the fence over an embankment and into a field.
The men escaped with cuts and bruises.

The younger man fainted when he tried to get out of the wreckage and the men might have frozen to death had it not been for a negro pedestrian who found them. He went to the railroad tower nearby and reported the accident and the man at the tower called for a doctor and ambulance.
The men were removed to the Hartshorn residence and their injuries cared for. Later they went to their homes.

Dr. Collier Stresses Dangers Of Cigaret To Students

In celebration of Temperance and Law Enforcement day in the schools, Dr. E. S. Collier, of the First Methodist church, addressed the Junior High school and the grades of the Fourth at public school yesterday.

The slippery pavements and control of the autos gave him an opening defining temperance as self control.
This is as necessary for a boy or girl as for an auto, he said. A lack of control always means disaster. One of the greatest causes of lack of control, the speaker said, was found in a little package which he produced—cigarets. He used charts each one with a cigarette on it showing from good authorities the evil results of the use of the "tag," especially by boys.

Industrial Alcohol Is Going Into Bootleg Channels,
He Tells Mellon.

OFFICE FORCE IN CAPITAL REDUCED

Dry Era Anniversary Finds Officials Being Sent
"to the Front."

Washington, Jan. 16.—Thou an-gallons of industrial alcohol are being regularly diverted into bootleg channels in Pennsylvania, despite the government restriction on its use, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon was informed today by Gov. Gifford Pinchot, in a report on enforcement conditions in the state.

Gov. Pinchot came to Washington to enlist the support of federal authorities in his effort to make Pennsylvania really dry.

A new slash in the federal prohibition staff at Washington within a few days will reduce the force here to 250 and virtually complete the dry organization started nine months ago by Gen. I. C. Andrews.

This was announced today, the anniversary of the date when prohibition became effective in the United States.

400 Officials Dropped

In the last nine months over 400 subordinate officials, legal and technical experts and clerks have been dropped from prohibition headquarters which once had a staff of nearly 1,000.

The move, according to prohibition director, J. E. Jones places additional responsibility for enforcement on field officers. Andrews' plan aims to leave details of enforcement to administrators, with "G. H. Q." free to dictate policies and direct general operations.

"The big difficulties of enforcement lie in the field," Jones said.
"All available personnel is being sent to the front."

Many of those relieved from duty have been transferred to other government departments, while some were secured positions in private business through influence of the prohibition office.

Unprofitable Business

London, Jan. 16.—There are some 600 British investors who are convinced that bootlegging is an unprofitable business.

During the bankruptcy examination of Sir Broderick Hartwell, the rum-running baronet, it was stated that there is about $1,250,000 owing to some six or seven hundred creditors. It is understood that many of these creditors are persons who have invested in Sir Broderick's rum-running venture.

Seizure of 36,000 cases of Sir Broderick's final shipment by the prohibition authorities and the failure of a partner in the venture to account for sales made, are held responsible for the failure of the venture.

MAYOR FINES MAN $100 IN WET CASE

George Manchula, West Eight st., one of the persons caught in this week's dry cleanup here, chanced his plea of not guilty to guilty when his trial came up in Mayor George E.
Russell's court Saturday morning.

The mayor fined Manchula $100 and costs for possession of a quantity of wine the raiders found. He is to pay the fine today.

Pomerene Endorsed For U. S. Senate

Columbus, Jan. 16.—Democratic members of the Ohio house of representatives in caucus here endorsed former Senator and former State Rep. H. S. Atkinson, Columbus, for lieutenant governor. Atkinson served two terms as Democratic floor leader in the house.

Pana Mackay Hasn't Forgotten Daughter, Says Irving Berlin

London, Jan. 16.—The Berlin, Irving and Ellin today confirmed the report that Clarence Mackay had not yet seen fit to forgive his daughter for marrying the composer.

"We have not made up with Mr.
Mackay," Berlin said, "but we are perfectly happy. Marriage is a dream."

The couple spent the day in the seclusion of their hotel, the cold and dampness of the London streets not appearing very inviting.

Radio officials, it is understood are trying to get Berlin to broadcast over the powerful British station, 2LO.

H. G. Wells Called 'Boasting Nuisance' By American Writer

London, Jan. 16.—H. G. Wells, today wrote a letter to the Daily Express describing Poulitney Bigelow, well known American writer, as "ill-mannered, malicious and vulgar."

Wells' attack was called forth by Bigelow's book entitled, "Severity Summers?" in which Wells is set down as a "shouting, boasting nuisance at tea parties."

The British writer expressed resentment over Bigelow's queries concerning the income he derived from his writings.

Bigelow was the son of John B.
Bigelow, ambassador to France under Lincoln. He is well known as a yachtsman and an explorer, in addition to his literary activities.

SENATE WILL OPEN BATTLE OVER TAX SLASH NEXT WEEK

A Difference of 15 Millions Between Senate and House Measures.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Carrying a total reduction of approximately $340,000,000, the tax bill was being polished up by the senate finance committee today with indications it would be ready for the printer late this afternoon.

A difference of only $15,000,000 separated the totals of the house measure which slashed taxes by $325,000,000 and the one over which the opposing groups in the senate committee have been arguing, for several weeks, but in details there was a wide dissimilarity.

Repeals of all capital stock taxes, and an increase in the corporation tax of 1 per cent to 13 1/2 per cent were among the important changes effected by Democrats with support from several Republicans on the committee.

"I believe we will finish the bill today and it will be laid before the senate, probably next Tuesday," said Senator Smoot (R) of Utah, chairman of the committee.

The fairly peaceful discussion of the finance measure by opposing groups on the committee, however, is only the calm before the storm which leaders of all factions admit will sweep the senate when argument begins.

This fight will center about repeal of public utility, the whole broad field of estate and inheritance taxes and surtaxes.

VOICE OF UNSEEN TO MARK SERVICE AT M. E. CHURCH

The voices and words of those who have passed into the unseen will be heard Sunday evening, at the First Methodist church.

Evan Williams' voice will be heard in "Open the Gates of the Temple," Bryan will thrill the audience by speaking as from the other world his address on "Immortality." The new Orthophonic Victrola will render those and others telling words from the unseen. The choir will render a number as echo singers.

Dr. Collier will speak on the "Voice of the Unseen." This will be a remarkable service because of its means of illustrating vividly the thought of the speaker.

DEBT PAYMENTS

There is still considerable speculation as to the final attitude of congress with regard to the foreign debt settlements. That in all the settlements made to date, the American government has made a compromise of the obligations is not denied.
Indeed the Debt Commission and the officials of the government have frankly conceded that in making their figures the capacity to earn and to pay of the several nations was a primary factor.

The problem which faced the Debt Commission and the administration in this matter can be expressed in very homely language. The commission had on one side debts owing of so large a total that the demand of repayment in full would inevitably provoke a state of moral bankruptcy on the part of the debtor nation.

It is pointed out that a program of all or nothing, would have resulted in the United States securing nothing.
In this emergency, Secretary Mellon, who is one of the ablest financiers this country has ever known reached the conclusion that half a loaf is better than no bread and on the whole the American people are apt to agree with that thought.

One other point should also be considered and that is a goodly amount of the obligations consist of relief supplies furnished to the people of the several nations with at least a gesture of charity.

No official, no matter how high his position, has a right to give away the money of the American people, but the American people themselves are the last, after extending a hand of helpfulness to the women and children of a foreign nation, to demand that debt also be repaid dollar for dollar.

WARNIN GTHE PUBLIC

Undoubtedly the fact that there is smallpox in Tampa, Fla., has received more damaging publicity than if the po-getter organizations and the newspapers there had not attempted to suppress it. The outbreak thus far does not seem to be especially alarming and the local health officials are believed to have the situation well in hand but the frantic efforts to keep that fact from becoming known must have given rise to exaggerated reports and have prompted people to leave Tampa or stay away from it.
That is the way an effort to keep facts of legitimate interest and importance to the public away from the public usually works out. People are never so much frightened by the truth as by rumors because the rumors grow with every telling.

This smallpox business has presented a problem in almost every newspaper office at one time or another. When a few cases develop the question arises whether the publication of the news will not alarm the public, keep people away from town and "hurt business." The other policy is more likely to have these undesired results. A newspaper has a warped idea of its responsibilities when it does not warn its readers of a possible public danger and, moreover, the policy of suppression is almost certain to defeat its own purpose. The Tampa newspapers probably realize that mistake by this time.

RADIO REGULATION

Secretary Hoover, in seeking legislative authority for his department to regulate radio broadcasting, points out that natural laws unaided by man made edicts are unable to adjust the serious issue. With only 89 wave lengths to be divided among 500 extant stations and 250 applicants on the waiting list, it is clear that a capitalized authority becomes necessary to bring something like a cusmos out of the chaos in the ether.
In Hoover's view, it is first of all a problem of sheer congestion. We have always thought of the air as synonymous with "limitless space," but we find that it can be crowded like the sea and traffic rules are necessary. In an effort to satisfy ever-reasonable demand for a license, the interference between stations has grown till it rivals the familiar encumbrance of static which the experts are now concentrating their endeavors to overcome.

SENATE IN FIGHT ON ITALIAN DEBT

Washington, Jan. 16.—The Italian debt settlement, under which Italy discharged her debt of nearly $2,000,000,000 over a period of 62 years at a fraction of 1 per cent interest, traveled the short road to the senate today where it faces even stiffer opposition than met in the house. Ratification was obtained in the house by a vote of 257 to 133.

The division was mainly along party lines, most of the Democrats and the insurgent Republicans voting against it.

The Democrats attacked the settlement as a departure from the British terms and stressed the fact that the American taxpayer will have to make up the difference between the Italian rate of interest and the 4 1/2 per cent the government has on Liberty bonds, amounting to approximately $30,800,000 annually.

Columbus, Jan. 16.—The Baxter bill, passed by the legislature Friday, provides that the accounting officers of each taxing district shall, immediately upon the passage of this act, or not later than April 1, next, certify to the state auditor:

1.—The balance, or deficiency, outstanding to the credit, or debit, of the several funds of the taxing district, except sinking fund, as of December 31, last.

2.—A detailed statement of the outstanding indebtedness of the funds of the district, stating whether represented by certificates of indebtedness, accounts payable or otherwise, with the dates of maturity.

3.—All balances and accounts receivable on December 31, 1925, applicable to payment of the indebtedness.

The state auditor then shall certify to each taxing district, and to the auditor of the county in which the district is situated, the amount of its net deficiency on December 31, last, allocated to the several funds of the district.

The taxing authorities of the district may include in their budgets for the five years ending with 1931 a sum equal to the net deficiency and levy a tax therefor. The proceeds from this levy shall be applied to making up the deficiencies.

Or, the taxing officials may pass a resolution holding that the issuance of notes maturing not later than December 31, 1931, funding the net deficiency is necessary.

The bill, also, provides that in case the amount required for sinking fund purposes is more than four mills, all above four mills shall be placed outside of all limitations.

This latter provision, it was stated, is designed especially to relieve the situation at Lima occasioned by the issuance of bonds for sewer construction.

The bus was crowded with passengers on their way home from work. William Hildreth, chauffeur, told the police that the steering wheel locked and although he applied the brakes, the momentum of the heavy vehicle carried it over the sidewalk to the brink of disaster.

Passengers were showered with the splintered glass of the broken windows and thrown on top of each other. Those injured are suffering from cuts and bruises.

Ponzi's Operations Under Postal Probe

Washington, Jan. 16.—Operations of Charles Ponzi, former get-rich-quick financier at Boston, in connection with sales of Florida real estate, are now being "given attention" by the postoffice department, it was learned today.

Postoffice inspectors, however, said that the probe has not progressed sufficiently far to indicate what action, if any, will be taken.

The postoffice department was notified of the arrest of one of Ponzi's Boston representatives by the Boston municipal authorities, but declared that this arrest had no connection with the federal investigation.

HUGHES REBUKED AGAIN FOR TALK ON WASHINGTON

New York, Jan. 16.—Rupert Hughes, the novelist, had no intention of equivocating his remarks on George Washington today in spite of his second rebuke, which came, this time, from a woman. Hughes had just repeated his statement that Washington was so fond of dancing that one time he danced all night. An elderly woman in the audience interrupted the novelist's lecture by demanding: "Well, why shouldn't he? He was the father of our country." She then left the hall with no attempt to conceal her indignation. Hughes said he was merely reciting facts from Washington's diary and other sources of historical information. His remarks that drew criticism were that Washington was a distiller of whiskey and had indulged in profane language.

Tors and coaches do. He says: "They give bad heart, bad lungs, less endurance, slow mentality and lack of self respect." Physical Director Nichols joins in this.

"All this comes from there being 82 percent poison in cigaret smoke. Nicotine is deadly. Two drops put on the skin of a rabbit kills. Two drops on the tongue of a dog results in death. A little tobacco in a baby's milk is fatal.

"The cigaret is a fire bug. The chief of fire department of New York says that it is responsible for one out of five fires. Even if it is one out of ten it would mean the loss of $45,000,000 in the country.

"The use of a cigaret by boys and girls is breaking the law. On the statute books of Ohio is a law making it a crime to sell tobacco to boys and girls. Where do they get it? Twenty-six states in United States have similar laws. Six states prohibit the sale to anyone.

Many dealers of employment are shut to cigaret smokers. Edison, Burbank, National Cash Register, Messinger service of Chicago postoffice, and many others have shut their doors to the fat smokers.

"The cost of tobacco to the nation is on a great gain. It averages over $12 a person in United States. This must mean nearly $4 a smoker. One billion two hundred million dollars a year goes out for the weed. The importance of this to boys is that the habit is formed early and by few is ever broken.

"Surely the cigaret is well called a 'coffin nail'." The speaker charged the cigaret with the following: Lower mentality, less lung power, bad heart, less fitness or athletic, less desirable as employment, scattering poison of nicotine, nervousness, loss of fire as well as a loss in savings. It is a law breaker. It is a bad habit seldom broken. It causes greater uncertainty of life. There is only one word to say. That is 'stop' or 'never begin'."

Physical Director Nichols' snake backing up the words of Dr. Collier. Many of the boys smoke on the evil effects they had known.

Dr. Collier also spoke in the grades on "The speech of the red lantern." It says "danger, stop." He spoke of the danger of bad thoughts. Good thoughts come from good reading, yet remain ultra-modish because of the beauty of its material. A narrow panel of self-material is arranged underneath the inverted plant in front and, if desired, satin of contrasting color may be used for the panel. As pictured, medium size requires 3 1/2 yards of 26-inch material.

LANGLEY BEGINS TERM IN ATLANTA FOR CONSPIRACY

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 16.—John W. Langley, former congressman from the tenth Kentucky district, arrived here today and went directly to the federal prison to begin serving his two year sentence for conspiracy to violate the prohibition law.

Langley was greeted by half a dozen former Kentuckians when he arrived at the terminal station. "I'd sooner see my brother going to prison than you, John," remarked one of the group.

Langley made no statement. He was accompanied here by Oscar Flannery, his nephew, and Roy B. Williams, federal district attorney from Kentucky.

WANTS BIG STICK USED IN STRIKE

Washington, Jan. 16.—The Copeland resolution, calling on President Coolidge to take immediate steps to end the anthracite strike, projected a lengthy debate in the senate this afternoon over the coal situation. Jardine Opposed to Ban on Short Sales

Washington, Jan. 16.—Secretary of Agriculture Jardine today announced his opposition to the Caraway bill to prohibit "short sales" in the cotton and grain markets.

Jardine's opposition was explained in a letter to the senate agriculture committee, which opened public hearings on the bill. Jardine said he felt the "hedging function of the future exchange" was a "real necessity in the present day development of our markets for cotton and grains."

"This function should not be destroyed," said Jardine, "until some other means of accomplishing the same results are established."

Declares Ag. Budget Is a "Monstrosity"

Chicago, Jan. 16.—The recommended budget for the U. S. department of agriculture was branded a "monstrosity" in a statement issued here today by the American Farm Bureau Federation which also declares that agricultural sides to the director of the budget have been "playing politics."

"No worse job could have been done. The budget will have to be entirely rewritten," declares the statement, signed by the federation's president, Sam H. Thompson, banker-farmer of Quincy, Ill.

Druse Rebellion Is Slowly Collapsing

Jerusalem, Jan. 16.—The Druse rebellion is gradually collapsing, according to reports received here from the Syrian frontier.

Incessant rains are hampering the operations of the Druses, curtailing their supplies and weakening their morale, it is reported.

COURT NEWS

Charges Cruelty

A petition in divorce has been filed in court by Attorney Frank E. Grosshans in behalf of Edith Wheeler against her husband Kinsey Wheeler. The couple were married at New Cumberland, Jan. 21, 1922. No children are of issue. It is related in the petition that the defendant, although able bodied, has failed to support his wife and that she has been compelled to support herself by working in the East Liverpool potteries.

Wheeler threatened to kill his wife Jan. 1, the petition goes on to say, and Mrs. Wheeler then fled her home for personal safety.

The court is asked to issue a restraining order against Wheeler from molesting any effects in the home, and she also asks that upon final hearing of the action that she be restored to her maiden name, that of Edith Mills.

Husband Cited

George McElhane, defendant in an action in divorce filed against him June 24th last by his wife Earnestine McElhane, has been ordered to appear before Judge James G. Moore Friday of next week and show cause why he should not be declared to be in contempt of court.

When this case was up for hearing the plaintiff was granted $35 temporary alimony to be paid within 10 days, and thereafter $10 every 10 days until further order of court. Counsel for the plaintiff has informed the court that the terms of the order have not been complied with, and the court immediately ordered McElhane to appear. The plaintiff in her petition sought a divorce, alimony and custody of minor children.

Divorce Petition

A petition in divorce has been filed in common pleas court by Robert C. H. Lawson against her husband and William C. Lawson, the plaintiff setting forth on occasion when the defendant threatened to kill her and her children.

The couple were married at Wellsburg, W. Va., Dec. 28, 1914, and two children of the ages 14 and five years are of issue.

For the last two years the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty, according to the petition, also of gross neglect of duty. Mrs. Lawson declares that her husband has made a practice of abusing her at frequent intervals. Lawson is also charged with adultery, both in East Liverpool and at Pittsburgh, Pa. In addition to a decree of divorce the petition asks the court for temporary alimony and also that the court grant the plaintiff the custody of the minor children.

The case of Altha Miller of Salem, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Gertrude Lottman, also of Salem, which went to trial before a jury composed of eleven men and one woman in common pleas court Room No. 2, Friday, with Judge Lodge presiding, will be continued on Monday.

Mrs. Miller is being defended by Attorney H. L. McCarthy, Salem, while Assistant Prosecuting Attorney John M. Bunknecht is representing the state. Mrs. Miller when arraigned on his charge a fortnight ago entered a plea of not guilty, and then her counsel asked for a trial by jury. A special venire was drawn for this case.

Damage Case

Thron in his counsel, Brookes & Thompson of East Liverpool, Robert L. Graham has filed an action in common pleas court against R. C. Rashe and the Rashe Motor Sales Co., claiming $450 damages as a result of an automobile collision.

The petition relates that the plaintiff was driving along the Cox Highway, east of Columbiana, Aug. 17, last when his machine was struck by one owned by Rashe and badly damaged.

File Petitions

Walter B. Hill of East Liverpool as trustee in bankruptcy for Theodore Kouvalis, has filed a petition in common pleas court against George Kouvalis seeking the return of property and chatties now contained in the Crystal restaurant, Sixth St., East Liverpool. The plaintiff filed his petition in bankruptcy, March 23, 1925, and on Dec. 6, 1924, four months prior to the filing of the bankruptcy petition, Theodore Kouvalis gave his brother, the defendant, a chattel mortgage on the restaurant chatties to secure a note for $15,000, and which was given for a preexisting debt, according to the petition Theodore Kouvalis then transferred in the mortgage the property described in the mortgage. The defendant then took possession of the restaurant and has been in charge of an operating it ever since.

It is set up in the petition that the chatties were in fact worth only $4,500 and the court is asked for a judgment for that amount against the defendant.

Harry Pugh who was sued in common pleas court Nov. 21, last by James L. Prosser for $20,000 damages for alienation of the affections of his wife, has been granted leave by Judge James G. Moore to file an answer to the petition.

In the partition proceeding filed in common pleas, Nov. 17, last by Mary McCartney against Minnie Edney and others, Judge James G. Moore has granted the motion of Edwin M. Thorpe, Cecil E. Thorpe, Amanda Coolidge and Ross E. Thorpe to make them parties defendant. At the same time the court has granted the new defendants leave to file their answer to the petition. R. E. Thorpe as guardian for certain minors interested in this estate has also been granted leave to file his answer.

The injunction proceeding filed in common pleas, Oct. 31 last by James B. Orr and James O. Orr of Wellsville against the City of Wellsville has been settled out of court. The journal entry in this case has been approved by Mayor W. L. Fogo of Wellsville and the city solicitor, and the action has been dismissed from the record at the costs of the defendant. No record is to follow.

In two cases wherein the Potters Saving & Loan Co. of East Liverpool was plaintiff and George A. Anderson, defendant, wherein money and foreclosure of mortgage was sought, the court has confirmed sales and a deed and distribution has been ordered in each action.

Earl Copé and others against whom an action was filed by William Geller to marshal liens on a motion filed by the plaintiff, dismissal of the case has been ordered by the court. This was done at the costs of the plaintiff.

Leave has been granted George H. Huston to file an answer and cross petition in an action filed in common pleas, July 23, 1923, seeking partition of property. The motion of Mr. Huston was granted when it was presented the court.

BRIAND SQUIRMS OUT OF ANOTHER FRENCH CRISIS

Paris, Jan. 15.—Aristide Briand, master-politician of France, has maneuvred himself out of another crisis and saved his cabinet temporarily.

Premier Briand, combining bold defiance with suave cajolery, has convinced the finance commission of the chamber of deputies that there is an avenue of compromise on the Doumer financial plan, by which a crisis can be averted.

The debate in the chamber on the financial program which was scheduled for today and which was expected to bring about the downfall of the Briand government has been postponed until Tuesday. In the meantime the finance commission is working up on a plan which may afford a means of compromise.

ANDERSON WOULD AID ACCUSED IN CRIMINAL CASES

Yonkers, N. J. Jan. 15.—An effort to have a bill introduced in the legislature providing that no person shall be convicted of a felony without proof of criminal intent beyond a reasonable doubt, will be made by William H.
Anderson, formerly state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

In making this announcement today, Anderson said his intention was based on the desire "to extract from the injustice perpetrated on me at least the satisfaction of helping provide against a repetition of it at the expense of anyone else."

Anderson who is now general secretary of the American Protestant Alliance, recently served a term for conviction on a technical forgery charge.

High School Notes

Temperance and law enforcement subjects were taken up in all the English classes in the High School Friday and the entire period devoted to them. This was in conjunction with a national event, Friday being set aside for the purpose of giving a better idea of prohibition and enforcement of law.

The Science club of the High school, recently organized for the advancement of science, which is open to all Juniors and Seniors, held an interesting meeting the better part of the week. Dudley Ashead gave some very interesting chemical experiments. A committee, appointed to draw up a constitution, consists of Miss Joane Olloman as chairman, and Miss Mary Ellen Smith and Robert Davis. In the near future, the radio department of the club will build several sets with money they obtained from a picture show which they gave recently.

The girls of room 206-B won the girls' basketball championship in the

THIRTY FAMILIES ARE DRIVEN FROM HOMES BY FIRES

New York, Jan. 16.—Thirty families were driven from the streets early today by two fires which caused damage estimated at $55,000. Six firemen were cut by broken glass in a fire directly opposite the home of Fire Chief John Kenlon.

Chief Kenlon supervised the work of combating the flames from his own window. He turned in two alarms.

The other fire was in a tenement in the Bronx where most of the families were forced to flee down the escapes. The fire was discovered by chance passersby who immediately spread the alarm.

HEIR TO THRONE ENJOYS HUMBLE HOME IN LONDON

Prince of Wales' House Is Unpretentious Inside;
Exterior Modest.

London, Jan. 16.—The Prince of Wales, although he has a total income of between $150,000 and $175,000 a year, has the chance of living like a millionaire in one of the most unpretentious homes in London, and lives almost as quietly as a man of straw with only one-fifth of his income.

The house, the home of the Prince of Wales, is tucked away in a quiet street in St. James' Court, and its exterior is a constant surprise to visitors who imagine that they are going to see a building of the size and number of Buckingham Palace or the Royal Palace at Potsdam.

Interior Is Plain.
The interior of the house is even more unassuming than its exterior. The entrance door leads into a fairly large hall, around which are placed various mementoes gathered together by the Prince during his travels and experiences.

White doors lead off from the hall into a plainly furnished ante-room and a reception room for callers. More white doors lead off from the ante-room to the Prince's secretariat, who occupy two rooms on the right of the ante-room. Doors on the left open into the dining room, and the remainder of the space in this floor is occupied more or less by sitting rooms.

One of the two rooms occupied by the secretariat is practically filled with bookcases, two of these contain bound volumes of press cuttings which form a record of the Prince's life.

Private Quarters Small.
The Prince's own private apartments consist of a bedroom and writing room. The former is a small dressing room leading off from the ante-room, a room which was occupied by the present King and Queen when they stayed at York House for a week. This was too big for the Prince's requirements and he preferred to have the smaller dressing room turned into a bedroom. His sitting room, where he works, is quite a small one, overlooking the street. It is the only room in the house the contents of which are the Prince of Wales' property.

Practically all the furniture in this sitting room is the same as the Prince had when at Oxford University, and is of an old Chippendale design. The predominant color of the room is green.

The Prince's writing desk is of the massive style, and two bookcases, chairs and various pictures of members of the Royal family complete the furniture in the room.

Two other well-furnished rooms on this floor are reserved for reception rooms for use on formal occasions.

Yessir, Even Cat's Whiskers are Taxed Say London Advises

London, Jan. 16.—The cat's whiskers are dutiable in England. The "Daily Mail" says that an importer of toy cats was forced to pay duty on the cat's whiskers because they were made of silk, and silk is dutiable.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Paris flappers have forsaken the lip-stick for the tickler.

Brokers report a great increase in orders from women, which is surprising in view of the fact that French legislation tends to discourage independent investments by women. No single woman, unless she has a professional rank, can have a bank account in her own name.

Women are fascinated by the mirage of sudden wealth and are following the "fame" closer than the waist-line for next season," one of the brokers said.

HOUSE AND SENATE ADJOURN SESSION

Petition for Investigation of University "Reds" Is Received.

Columbus, Jan. 16.—The house and senate ended the special session at 3:35 p. m. Friday after the house had adopted a number of resolutions of sympathy because of the death of a number of representatives since the regular session.

A resolution of sympathy was also adopted because of the death of Lieut. Comdr. Zachary Landowne, commander of the ill-fated Shenandoah, who was a native of Greenville. The session of the house terminated with adoption of a resolution by Rep. Dempsey, of Cleveland, providing for "one-half hour recess," the understanding being that the work of the body was finished.

As the house was about to adjourn members were thrown into an uproar when a petition asking for a rigid investigation of alleged dissemination of Communist doctrine at Ohio State university was presented by Rep. C. E. Knapp, of Medina county. The petition was addressed to Gov. Donahey, Senator Comings of Lorain county and Rep. Knapp. It was signed by approximately 500 residents of the Western Reserve section of Ohio. Most of the signers live at Medina.

A copy of the petition was placed in the house files and another will be sent to Gov. Donahey.

The high-wave reception range of the Grebe dial (B) from 550 down to 240 meters—equals the practical tuning range of the usual receiver. The low-wave range of the Grebe dial (A) provides additional reception down to 150 meters.

You Don't Need Two Radio Receivers

OVER 100 existing stations, with worth-while programs, are beyond the reach of the average receiver because it cannot tune below 240 meters.

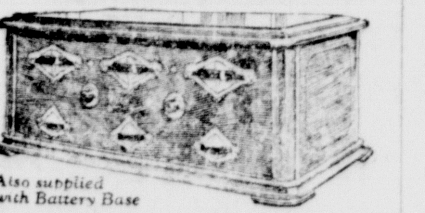

Thus, to get both high and low-wave stations requires two receivers—unless you own a Synchrophase. Due to its Low-Wave Extension Circuits—exclusively Grebe—it will receive all stations from 550 down to 150 meters. One dial covers this complete range.

Ask for a demonstration of this and the other recent Grebe developments; then compare.

"GREATER KAUFMANN & BAER" FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

Points of Interest to Out-of-Town Customers

K. & B. is Pittsburgh's most centrally located store with reference to incoming and outgoing trains. From Union Station walk straight down Liberty Street to Smithfield, turn to the left one block and a half on Smithfield, and you are at the great Kaufmann & Baer Building. Readily accessible, also, from other stations.

Budget Buying— A K. & B. Plan

Corporations budget, cities budget, the nation budgets. Let K. & B. help you budget your purchases in the February Furniture Sale. And take advantage of the K. & B. system of Easy Payments Easily Arranged, a simple method of paying gradually out of income without disturbing capital.

Freight Prepaid Out-of-Town

K. & B. prepays freight on out-of-town shipments of Furniture purchased during the February Furniture Sale. Furniture may be shipped immediately on purchase or, if your home is not ready, it will be held for shipping instructions. A service of particular interest to K. & B. customers in other cities.

Visit the "K. & B. Budget Home"

An entirely new and unique feature of the February Sale. The "K. & B. Budget Home" is not only a graphic realization of your own home-dreams but also a concrete illustration of the possibilities of K. & B. Furniture Budgeting, since it is completely furnished on a controlled scale of prices.

KAUFMANN & BAER'S annual February Sale is an institution, not only to Pittsburghers but to thousands of people in cities in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and Ohio (and even in states much further removed) who regularly take this opportunity to furnish or re-furnish their homes at enormous savings. Years of value-triumphs have taught them what to expect. Yet this year marks the greatest Sale of all.

KAUFMANN & BAER has recently become a part of Gimbel Brothers, Inc., operating five other stores in New York, Philadelphia, and Milwaukee. As such, it participates in the greatest annual buying power in the world, $125,000,000. With the advantages of this colossal buying power it has purchased the greatest collection of fine Furniture this store has ever assembled—at the lowest purchase prices.

SO TREMENDOUS are these stocks that it has been necessary to devote THREE FLOORS to its display—a volume-feat which no other Pittsburgh department store has ever attempted. Much of the Furniture offered comes from Grand Rapids, the furniture center of the world. All of it carries unprecedented savings.
